

Hypertension remains one of the most prevalent chronic diseases worldwide.

First-line therapies include thiazide diuretics, ACE inhibitors or ARBs, and calcium channel blockers.

Lifestyle modifications such as salt restriction and exercise are strongly recommended.